Rogues Gallery- the Worst of the Worst-

Section II: COPS, POLICE CHIEFS -PLUS JUDGES AND POLITICIANS- WHO SEXUALLY EXPLOIT- RAPE/ EXTORT/ SOLICIT AND PIMP PROSTITUTES OF ALL AGES . THESE ARE THE ONES WHO GOT CAUGHT... MANY MORE NEVER DO.

THE LAWS AGAINST PROSTITUTION GIVE A GREAT DEAL OF POWER TO THOSE ENTRUSTED WITH ENFORCING THE LAWS. THIS POWER IS ABUSED BECAUSE THOSE WHO ENFORCE THE LAWS ARE THEMSELVES “ONLY HUMAN” AND FIND IT EASY TO GET AWAY WITH THEIR CRIMES. MOST PROSECUTORS DON’T WANT TO FILE CHARGES AGAINST OFFICERS BECAUSE THEY BELIEVE THAT IT WAS CONSENSUAL. IF AND WHEN THEY ARE ARRESTED AND PROSECUTED, JUDGES DON’T LIKE TO SENTENCE THEM TO PRISON BECAUSE THE OFFENSE “WASN’T THAT SERIOUS”... ON RARE OCCASIONS WHEN THE EVIDENCE OF THEIR CRIMES BECOMES OVERWHELMING, THEY ARE SENTENCED TO PRISON. HOWEVER, IN MANY CASES THEY DO NOT GET FIRED, MUCH LESS ARRESTED. YET POLITICIANS AND THE PROSTITUTION ABOLITIONISTS WANT TO CHARGE THE NON VIOLENT, NON ABUSIVE CLIENTS OF SEX WORKERS WITH ‘SEX TRAFFICKING’ AND SEND THEM TO PRISON FOR UP TO LIFE. WHY IS THAT?

On August 8, 2012, the Ohio State Attorney General’s office released a report it had commissioned on domestic sex trafficking in that state. Newspapers across the US touted the ‘ground breaking research’ based on interviews with a very small number of underage and adult people (328) involved in the sex industry. Although other researchers had previously stated what prostitutes of all ages and nationalities have told them, this report was based on research conducted at the behest of the state government. “In all of Ohio, the most common buyers for victims were law enforcement. Businessmen and drug dealers were second and third, respectively.”

With so very many naughty cops to choose from, it was difficult to decide which ones to share, but you can view the list yourself and check out their stories \(click link\) Name, department, rank/ sentence for crime (where known)

As part of the plea deal Maes does not have to register as a sex offender, | 2011 Albuquerque NM Judge Albert S. Pat Murdoch Arrested In Rape Of Prostitute. In 2010, Judge Murdoch sentenced Albuquerque Police Officer David Maes to probation after Officer Maes was convicted of raping a prostitute. The judge felt that sentencing a police officer to prison was too harsh a punishment. "One of his most high-profile cases was the 2010 Desert Divas case, regarding a prostitution ring. He ultimately suppressed the prostitution ring's client list." | 2004 Portland OR Officer Roger Magana- worked at the Eugene Police Department (EPD), women complained over and over that he was using his badge to force sex, but Eugene police did nothing. After Magaña was finally caught after six years and sent to prison for abusing a dozen women, substantial evidence emerged that other police officers had failed in the investigation, supervision and hiring of the criminal. But the police again did nothing. Convicted of rape, kidnapping and other crimes, Magaña was sentenced in 2004 to a prison term of 94 years. |

Vice detectives tracked Connell in early 2013 while he was still on the force. During a three-month period, he made five trips to an apartment in the 5000 block of South Maryland Parkway, where he would meet a 58-year-old woman. No further information. | 2013 Oregon State Police Detective Richard Narvaez suspended on accusation of public sexual activity with prostitute. Narvaez, who has worked for the OSP for 23 years, was on duty but not in uniform at the time of the alleged incident. He was immediately suspended without pay and has been charged with patronizing a prostitute and public indecency, according to a report from the sheriff's office. He was sentenced to seven days in jail for patronizing a prostitute he met while he was on duty. | 2013 San Diego CA Sheriff's Deputy Stuart Rea- a helicopter pilot for the SDSD- charged with soliciting prostitution. He was busted soliciting who he thought was a prostitute. He arranged the meeting on Craigslist with an undercover police officer. When he met the woman at a Howard Johnson hotel, she recognized him right away, but he did not recognize her. It turns out he actually trained her at the academy. He pleaded guilty to a lesser offense and put on probation. He was not fired and still retains his job with the San Diego Sheriff's Department. |

| 2012 Officials at the Treasury Department officials have been cited for soliciting prostitutes, breaking conflict-of-interest rules and taking gifts from corporate executives, according to a new report. In 2010, an employee "misused" government computers to solicit hookers on three separate occasions on Craigslist. The case was later referred for criminal prosecution to the US Attorney's Office, which chose not to prosecute "absent aggravating circumstances such as underage prostitutes or human trafficking." | 2012 The Mansfield LA Police Department has added to its force a former Shreveport police officer arrested last year for solicitation of prostitution. Jercarlous Colbert resigned after he was arrested in 2011 for solicitation of prostitution. Obviously he was not convicted or punished other than to resign. | 2011 Former Los Angeles Police Officer turned San Bernadino CA police officer and vice cop Jose Jesus Perez forced sex workers to have sex with him while he was in uniform. The victim told detectives that "prostitutes have a common understanding that they cannot tell a police officer 'no' if he requests sex." Perez worked in the vice division, which investigates, among other things, prostitution. Convicted and sentenced to 25 years. | 2012 Melbourne FL Police Officer Jose Otero pleaded guilty in 2013 to a 2012 charge related to having sex with a prostitute in his patrol car. Judge Judith Atkin withheld adjudication of guilt, which means Otero can have his record cleared in three years. She sentenced him to six months of probation and ordered him to undergo five months of counseling. Prosecutor Wayne Holmes said Otero picked up prostitutes in his patrol car several times in 2012, while on duty. Holmes said Otero took the women behind buildings, where they had sexual relations in the patrol car. He was fired. |

| 2012 Edmonds WA Police Officer Daniel Lavelly guilty of forcing a suspected prostitute to have sex with him. The prosecutor said Lavelly targeted the woman because she was a homeless drug addict whom the officer believed was a prostitute. He dropped her off behind a clothing store "like a piece of garbage." He was fired and sentenced to one year in prison. | 2012 Clayton County GA Police Officer Darrell Williams ... If you're a cop, it's bad to have sex on the job. It's worse to pay a prostitute for that sex on the job. The craziest scenario, however, is when the prostitute turns on you — and you lose that job! Williams was fired. The woman who filed a complaint against Williams is a prostitute. He reportedly refused to pay her $20 for her services. No further information on whether or not he was prosecuted. | 2012 Jacksonville FL Sheriff Deputy David Sumlin charged with soliciting a prostitute WHILE ON DUTY. He resigned and entered a plea to solicitation of a prostitute charges and spent four months on probation. While on probation, 49-year-old David Sumlin also had to do 100 hours of community service. | 2012 Cleveland OH Police Officer Gregory Jones was sentenced to nine years in prison Friday for raping a woman- a suspected prostitute- in 2012. Cuyahoga County Common Pleas Judge Steven Gall ordered Gregory Jones to prison after a jury convicted him of rape and kidnapping. Later, police officials fired Jones. He had been on unpaid leave since August 2012. |

| 2012 New Mexico DPS Officer Timothy Carlson on paid administrative leave after being arrested for coercing prostitutes to have sex with him. He first came to the attention of the Albuquerque PD vice squad in 2011, when they caught him in his car with a prostitute. The prostitute turned out to be a confidential informant for APD. She told police Carlson pulled her and the John over last month, wearing his badge and displaying his gun. She says Carlson told the John to leave and offered her a ride home. She said Carlson threatened to arrest her if she didn't sleep with him. The criminal charge against Carlson, was dismissed. Carlson has denied the allegations, and contended that the sex was consensual. | 2012 DeKalb GA police officer Quintez Buckner's off-duty encounters with a prostitute have cost him his job. He resigned after an investigation into the alleged incident. No further information available. It does not appear that Mr. Buckner was charged with any crime. | 2012 Modesto CA police officer Lee Freddie Gaines II was arrested after detectives say he "committed criminal sexual violations against an adult female" while on duty. Gaines faces felony charges of oral copulation by force, violence, duress or fear of bodily injury; being armed with a firearm in the commission of a sexual offense, and a felony sex offense enhancement. The victim was a massage therapist. She said he told her to walk outside because he was going to arrest her for solicitation. She said she wasn't soliciting. He stepped inside, shut the door and asked her to turn around and put her hands behind her back. She said he then put handcuffs on her, forced her to her knees and demanded oral copulation. Gaines told a police sergeant he went to see the woman because he was trying to turn her into an informant. Fired. Probation for 30 days and had to pay the city $32.57 in restitution for taking an hour of his work time while having sex with the woman. | 2011 Several Raleigh NC police officers were part of a police department internal investigation after allegations of sexual contact with a prostitute. One of the names tied to the investigation, sources said, is Raleigh police Sgt. Rick Armstrong, who was the president of the Raleigh Police Protective Association, a professional association that represents the interests of police officers. He was fired. No further criminal action against him or the other officers who had 'voluntary' relationships with at least one prostitute. Armstrong is now a business agent with the Raleigh Police Protective Association and the local Teamsters Union 391. |

Cops routinely interact with prostitutes - as informants, as arrestees, as victims of rape. Cops are also permitted to have sex with a ‘suspected prostitute’ to make an arrest. IF and when they are ‘caught’ with a prostitute under other circumstances, it is not likely they will be charged with any crime. Most prosecutors believe that any sex between a cop and a prostitute is consensual, so they simply refuse to prosecute the cop.

In 2008, the Los Angeles County district attorney's office declined to file charges against a city police officer who was accused of the on-duty rape of a visiting Florida woman in 2006. After a review that lasted more than a year and a half, the district attorney's office concluded that "at least one sexual act occurred" between LAPD Officer Donvey Lindsey and the woman, who officers accused of being a prostitute, according to a report. The woman had the "appearance and conduct . . . consistent with prostitution," making it difficult for prosecutors to prove that the sex was not consensual, the report found. She also had an arrest record for prostitution in her home state...

If the cop is NOT arrested OR prosecuted, there is no reason for him to be fired. If the cop is caught and internal affairs handles the case, the cop MAY be suspended for a week or so without pay, but that is generally the extent of the discipline for the officer. (On the other hand, the prostitute is quite likely to be arrested for outstanding warrants FOR prostitution.) In 1988, now retired LAPD spokesman Cmdr. William Booth said (regarding Sgt. Emmanuel Valencia, caught having sex with a male prostitute) “it was not the first time that an LAPD officer had been suspended for performing sex with a prostitute while on duty. In the history of the department, I'd be hard pressed to find a violation that has not been committed. Sex charges, neglected duty charges, lewd conduct charges--we've had them all.” ‘And so what if they did (rape, extort, threaten or abuse a prostitute)’ he might have said. ‘They are only prostitutes, after all, and why ruin a good officer’s career over sex with a whore?’

Tell me again why prostitution abolitionists want the non violent, non abusive clients, employers and associates of consenting adult sex workers to go to prison for 15 years to life? Clients and employers against whom NO CRIMINAL COMPLAINT WAS FILED other than by a police officer who may have threatened to arrest the prostitute or arrest the prostitute’s non violent clients/ employers or associates if the prostitute doesn’t provide the nice officer with sexual favors?

Why not allow adult sex workers to go to the police when and if we are victims? That’s what all other victims of all other crimes (other than homicide) are REQUIRED to do before the cops will begin an investigation...

Prostitution investigators may have sex

SPOKANE (AP) — Police agents may engage in sex to carry out prostitution investigations, as long as they don't try to trap anyone into the crime, a Spokane County District Court judge has ruled.
A two-month investigation last fall, which reportedly involved spending $2,000 for two agents to engage in sex acts for evidence, did not constitute entrapment, Judge Daniel Maggs ruled Friday.
“It may violate public morals, but personal beliefs can't be substituted for the law,” Maggs said.
Maggs also dropped prostitution charges under a city ordinance against 24 women, but said the women still could be charged under state prostitution statutes.
He ruled city officials who passed the prostitution ordinance in 1971 as an emergency measure failed to prove that an emergency existed.
Virginia Worthington, a defense attorney, said the decision was “a mixed victory.”
