Former deputy pleads guilty to child porn charges

September 5, 2012: ‘CHARLOTTE COUNTY (FLA) - A former Charlotte County sheriff's sergeant pled guilty to a charge of child pornography. Now, it'll be up to a federal judge whether his law enforcement career gets him a break.

Kenneth Barton admitted Wednesday that he lived a double life.

The former sergeant had resigned in 2007 from the Charlotte County Sheriff's Office amid a series of allegations he'd molested a young girl and had an inappropriate relationship with a teenager... But until June, no one knew what he had stashed in his bedroom closet. Wednesday, he admitted it was two computers with child pornography on them.

Government investigators say they found more than 100 sexually explicit videos - some involving children as young as three...

Barton admitted to the judge he knowingly downloaded computer files that contained minors in sexual activities...He'll get credit for cooperating with the government - but a federal judge will decide what to make of his former career at sentencing

"It's a two-edged sword because of his background. There may be an argument that he knew better and should not have been involved, or he may be given credit for 25 years in loyal service to law enforcement..." ‘

July 2013- UNKNOWN SENTENCE- but if the judge gives him credit for his loyal service to law enforcement- even if he had been molesting children throughout his career... he will most likely get probation or a very minimal sentence....
