Jail or Jesus? Really? In the United States?

Is Monica Jones
the most dangerous outlaw in Arizona? →

She MUST be quite dangerous, because the Phoenix cops and local prosecutor are spending THOUSANDS of taxpayer dollars to pursue, arrest and prosecute her because she disrespected the Catholic Charities / government funded PROJECT ROSE- a thorny religious indoctrination program which is run by 'victim pimp' prostitution abolitionist - assistant sociology professor at Arizona State University- Dominique Roe- Sepowitz, who, with her student minions (who apparently have NO math skills and no knowledge or understanding of history), are producing badly researched and incredibly unscientific dribble in order to continue their unattainable quest to 'eradicate all commercial sex' from the face of the earth! Oh yes, and to save the 'lost souls' like Monica, whether or not they want to be saved/ rescued- or what it really is- kidnapped- and forced into this 'program' where they will be 'taught' the politically and religiously correct way of thinking (not unlike the victims of the Inquisition or the Magdalene Laundries who were the unfortunate recipients of a nasty practice that the Catholic Church still seems reluctant to give up... forced conversions).

Those who reject forced 're-education' as Monica did- and even worse, she spoke out against these self-appointed 'rescuers,' are then considered merely unrepentant sinners/ criminals who must be punished for daring to question the prostitution abolitionist/ government's claim that they are victims. Forget your constitutional rights- you don't have any if you are a 'whore'- your loss of freedom is a 'small price to pay' for these people to get the opportunity to use taxpayer money to recruit 'innocent victims' as new spokespersons to rail against the 'evils of prostitution.' If they don't accept their victimhood, then off to jail they go to become a victim- as they are quite likely to be raped by the corrections staff, who have been known to send female inmates off prison grounds TO WORK AS PROSTITUTES - ironically... as happened to inmates in Georgia prisons a few years back...

In 2013, it was reported that there are 6,000 cases of child abuse/neglect in Arizona which were not investigated- because there were insufficient financial resources available - leaving 6,000 CHILDREN without help...
LA Times "Arizona to investigate why 6,000 child abuse reports were ignored"

Uppity sex workers with attitudes are bad enough, but in addition to failing to keep her constitutionally protected opinions to herself, Monica's OTHER sins are that she is both black AND a trans woman! And she had the NERVE to question their actions AND motives! You can read more of her story online in the Feb. 26, 2014 article on Vice.com: "Project Rose is Arresting Sex Workers in Arizona to Save Their Souls" (by Molly Crabapple)

In 2012, there were 2,277 victims of violent rape in Arizona who called the police and asked for help, but the police arrested only 220 alleged rapists (or less than 10%) leaving 2,077 RAPE VICTIMS without justice ... there are no statistics available on the number of rapists who were prosecuted, convicted or sent to prison...

We are told that this crusade to 'abolish' prostitution is to 'protect women and children' from violence and sexual exploitation- but how true can that be, if instead of pursuing and arresting the rapists whose victims asked for help- or the *96% of all sexual predators of children such as pedophile priests, preachers, teachers, coaches, parents and even cops- predators who are NOT buying the services of their victims- the cops are instructed to kidnap-- 'legally detain'-- adult sex workers who HAVE NOT ASKED for help or claimed to be a victim of violence? And what of the real victims? Do these 'prostitution abolitionists' care at all about them? Or do they only care about imposing their moral or social agenda on those whom many cops feel they have a moral right to rape and extort? And how does that impact the lives of real victims when no justice is forthcoming?

Are these real victims unimportant to the prostitution abolitionists? Alas- it would seem that they are...

"Project ROSE is a Phoenix (AZ) city program that arrests sex workers in the name of saving them. In five two-day stings, more than 100 police officers targeted alleged sex workers on the street and online. They brought them in handcuffs to the Bethany Bible Church. There, the sex workers were forced to meet with prosecutors, detectives, and representatives of Project ROSE, who offered a diversion program to those who qualified. Those who did not may face months or years in jail." Vice.com "Project ROSE Is Arresting Sex Workers in Arizona to Save Their Souls"
